

NOT VERY DANGEROUS.

Anarchists All Over the Country
Commemorate the Hanging of Their Comrades.

The Meeting at Chicago a Tame
One and Marked by Little Enthusiasm.

Mrs. Parsons' Display of a Red Flag the Only Notable Incident—The Missouri Contingent.

CHICAGO, Nov. 11.—The anarchist memorial celebration was very tame. In fact the only noteworthy incident was furnished by Mrs. Lucy Parsons, who, in defiance of the police prohibition of red flags, hung one from the window of her residence. A policeman was sent to notify her to take it down. "This is a free country," said Mrs. Parsons; "Why can't I wave the flag of my doctrine?" "Because my orders are to pull it down," and without further parley he tore down the flag and took it to the station.

The day at Waldheim cemetery was raw and cold. From a crowd of five thousand last year the attendance had dwindled down to less than two thousand, and of this number not a few were merely unconcerned spectators. The floral decorations were profuse and beautiful, but the only inscription which had anything of the old time style was one reading "Murdered, but still alive." During the exercises Mrs. Spies, Mrs. Schwab and Mrs. Fischer stood at the head of the graves, while Mrs. Parsons, sitting on the damp ground by her husband's grave with her little boy by her side, abandoned herself to tears. After some musical selections C. J. Clemens, of Topeka, Kansas, stepped forward and announced himself as an American anarchist. Although he understood his life was in danger in Chicago, he had determined to have his say. Clemens then abused the laws and the authorities. Paul Grottkaus spoke in a much milder vein than last year. His address was principally devoted to "Crimes of the Aristocracy." "Only through blood," said he, "can white slavery be abolished. Don't imagine we are at peace. We are at war with the existing conditions. Of course, we can win battles every day, but energy of forces would gather, and the inevitable conflict in which we hope to be successful will come."

Two other brief speeches were made. No disturbances occurred throughout the day. Indeed the lack of the enthusiasm which generally characterizes anarchist gatherings was the chief feature.

KANSAS CITY, Nov. 11.—The anarchists of this city celebrated the anniversary of the Chicago executions. The speeches were bitterly denunciatory in tone, but does not advise immediate use of violent means to obtain the anarchists' object.

St. Louis, Nov. 11.—The anarchists celebrated here in commemoration of the execution of the Chicago anarchists, but the fair was decidedly tame, and not what the incendiary circulars distributed broadcast indicated it would be. The hall where the meeting was held was profusely decorated with crepe and red bunting and pictures and busts of the dead anarchists.

It is astonishing how rapidly the feeble and debilitated gain strength and vigor when taking Ayer's Sarsaparilla. For what are called "broken-down constitutions," nothing else has proved so effective as this powerful and perfectly safe medicine.

What an Earth
Is the reason people will not, cannot, or do not see any difference in cheap nostrums put up by Cheap John houses or irresponsible parties at enormous profits, rather than take a medicine of world-wide reputation and one that is giving universal satisfaction at equal price? No medicine in the world is giving such unparalleled satisfaction for purifying the blood as BEGG'S Blood Purifier and Blood Maker, and every bottle that does not do its work will cost you nothing. For sale by all druggists. R. S. Hale & Co., wholesale and retail agents.

A Good Cough Syrup
There is nothing parents should be so careful about as selecting a cough syrup. BEGG'S Cherry Cough Syrup costs no more than the cheap and inferior nostrums thrown on the market. The best is none too good, be sure and get BEGG'S CHERRY COUGH SYRUP. Keep it on hand at all times. R. S. Hale & Co., Druggists.

Unsurpassed in the World.
The vestibuled trains of the Chicago, Milwaukee & St. Paul railway, running daily between St. Paul and Minneapolis, and Milwaukee and Chicago, are the perfection of modern railway equipment, and are unsurpassed in the world. They consist of elegant day coaches, Pullman's latest and best sleeping cars and the finest dining cars in the country. These trains are lighted by electricity and heated by steam, and afford to the traveler every comfort and convenience to be had at the very best hotels. All classes of tickets are honored on these trains and the rates are no higher than by other lines. It is for this reason that discriminating travelers patronize this company and insist that their tickets read over its line as they naturally want the best service for their money.

What a Fortune.
Is a good healthy, pearly skin. Few are aware of the short time it takes for a disordered liver to cause blotches on the face, and a dark greasy skin. One bottle of BEGG'S BLOOD PURIFIER and BLOOD MAKER will restore this organ to its natural and healthy state, and cleanse the blood of all impurities. It is meeting with wonderful success. A guarantee every bottle. R. S. Hale & Co., Druggists.

Croup Can Be Prevented.
We want every mother to know that croup can be prevented. There is no question about this; as it has been done in thousands of cases, and you may depend upon it that when a child takes the croup, it is wholly owing to the negligence of its parents. True croup never appears without due and timely warning; a few hours, or a day or two before the attack, the child becomes hoarse. This hoarseness is the first indication of croup, and is a sure sign that croup is to follow, unless promptly and properly treated. The free use of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy as directed with each bottle, under the heading "Prevent Croup," will dispel all symptoms of the disease. The first sign of croup, hoarseness, may be overlooked by young mothers or those not familiar with the disease. Under such circumstances, or when not properly treated, the hoarseness becomes more marked and the child shows symptoms of having taken cold, then a peculiar rough cough is developed. Even at this stage Chamberlain's Cough Remedy will prevent the croup, but after the cough has developed, the croup is liable to appear at any moment. The proper way, is to keep a bottle of this remedy at hand. It costs but fifty cents, and only a few doses, or, at most, not over one-third of a bottle is required to dispel all symptoms of the disease. Can you afford to risk so much for so little? There is not the least danger in giving this remedy in large and frequent doses, which are always required, as it contains no injurious substance. As proof of this fact, we refer to Mr. John L. Olson of Des Moines, Ia., whose 10-months-old boy drank the entire contents of a fifty cent bottle of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy without the least injury. For sale by H. M. Parchen & Co.
